

From: Aret Carlsen [e-mail redacted]
Sent: Monday, September 27, 2010 12:50 PM
To: Bilski_Guidance
Subject: Bilski guidance

From a legal/precedent perspective: Software consists only of mathematics, which is not patentable, and the combination of such software with a general-purpose computer is obvious. The Supreme Court does not disagree.

From a business perspective: As a programmer, software patents only inhibit my work. They do not accomplish the incentive to invention for which they are intended.

-Aret Carlsen
[e-mail redacted]