

From: Brian Lee [e-mail redacted]
Sent: Thursday, August 05, 2010 2:10 PM
To: Bilski_Guidance
Subject: Interim Bilski Guidance

Dear Sir or Madam,

I fully support the USPTO's Interim Bilski Guidance.

People need to realize that software is essentially just one big set of abstract algorithms. Copyright provided software enough protection. All software patents have done is to help limit innovation by allowing people who are not in our industry, and who have no intention of entering our industry, to raise our costs for research and development of new technology and products.

--

Brian